

Job Offer : Piano accompanist at the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel

The Music Chapel is a center of excellence for high-level training that is based on three concepts: shaping the musician's artistic personality, improving his or her instrumental or voice technique, and launching a professional career through a particularly extensive program of concerts and recitals.

Because every student is different, we believe it is important to prepare a customized curriculum and to take the student's profile into consideration.

The presence of Masters in Residence, who pursue an intensive professional career, and their role in guiding young musical talents, constitute the cornerstone of our educational project. Collaboration with a mentor creates a genuine feeling of companionship. But in addition to the six masters in residence, the Music Chapel also welcomes visiting artists. Leading classical artists regularly give master classes, workshops, chamber music coaching, and performances side by side with our young soloists.
